

INVITATION

Current Status on developing a Bio-based Strategy in Covasna Region, Synergies With the BE-Rural Project

Date: Tuesday, 17 December 2019 (16:00 – 19:00)
Venue: Casarbor, Str. Constructorilor 5, Sf. Gheorghe – Covasna County

We invite you to the event organized by the Institute for Economic Forecasting (IEF) of the Romanian Academy, in collaboration with the Romanian Cluster Association (CLUSTERO) and PRO WOOD Cluster that will take place on Tuesday, 17th December 2019.

The event is organised as a strategic planning workshop as part of the ongoing cooperation between Clusters in Covasna Region, the Romanian Cluster Association and the Institute for Economic Forecasting (IEF) of the Romanian Academy.

The event aims to mobilize local/regional stakeholders and raise awareness of the importance of the bioeconomy for Covasna region considering all the goals, activities, outcomes of the BE-Rural project within the Horizon 2020 programme. The workshop will focus on finding links between cluster's activities and the BE Rural Project, but also to discuss the new cluster call in the framework of the Competitiveness Operational Programme.
